RAILROAD COMMISSIONERS Find Everything Satisfactory on New South Coventry Trolley Line-Pub-lic Service Today-Official Trip

Made Wednesday Afternoon. The official entry of the trolley to South Coventry over the new line from this city was made Wednesday shortly after noon, when a special car containing Railroad Commissioner William O. Seymour, the civil engi-neer of the board of commissioners; First Vice President Calvert Town-ley, in charge of the Connecticut company trolley lines; General Manager J. K. Punderford of the same company, C. Rufus Harte, the engineer who laid out and supervised the construction of the new line; M. J. Leary, general freight and passenger agent and his assistant, G. Y. Gaillard of the Connecticut company; R. E. Wade and H. Bates of the construction force that built the road, and Joseph Wedge, who had the supervision of the over-head work, and Supt. Samuel Anderwon of the Norwich system, was run over the line.

Special Guests. Accompanying the official party by nvitation were George E. Stiles, Frank Larrabce, F. D. Jordan, John F. Carr and Jay M. Shepard of the board of trade and business men's association trolley celebration commit-tee; Senator W. L. Higgins, Repre-

The return trip to Willimantic was made in just 21 minutes to the railroad crossing on Main street, where Messrs. Towniey, Punderford and Seymour and Supt. Anderson boarded a special car and left for New London to make connections over the cussed. Shore line for New Haven. The car was then run back to the Hooker house, where the other officials were entertained with an excellent dinner by the committee.

Public Will Have First Ride Today. Mr. Fyler and Mr. Gates, the other Wednesday, stated Mr. Seymour, but he gave the necessary sanction for the opening of the line to the public, and this morning the first car will run out of the car barn at 5.30 o'clock and run down Main street to the railroad run down Main street to the railroad run of the car barn at 5.30 o'clock and run down Main street to the railroad run to the run to crossing and confect with the 8.15 carup from South Windham and make

STAFFORD SPRINGS New Brick Store House-School Will Representative Joseph McKachnie has made an initial impression on the members of the state educational board in favor of this city, but this entering wedge needs the solid backing of the best interests in Putnam. Ex-Senator H. J. Potter of Woodstock, agent of the state board, is favorably impressed with the claims of Putnam for recognition in this matter and has expressed his opinions that a sufficient number of pupils would attend from the state to make the school a success. Mr. Potter is of the opinion that Putnam has an excellent opportunity to secure the school, but he also says to the people that they must show the board their interest that they are really anxious to get it.
